GENERAL

- THE CIVIL LAW TRADITION, by John Henry Merryman. Stanford, California: Stanford University Press, 1969. Pp. ix, 172. Cloth: $6.50. Subject: A general history and analysis of the civil law tradition. Rather than describing a particular system the author emphasizes the common aspects of the prevailing legal codes that bind Western Europe and Latin America.
- COP! A CLOSEUP OF VIOLENCE AND TRAGEDY, by L.H. Whittemore. New York: Holt, Rinehart and Winston, 1969. Pp. xii, 305. Cloth: $6.95. Subject: An on-the-scene documentary of the spoken philosophy of cops, developed by a reporter who, equipped with a tape recorder, travelled with a veteran Italian patrolman in Harlem, a Negro detective in Chicago's South Side, and two young white patrolmen in Haight-Ashbury.
- DELINQUENTS AND NONDELINQUENTS IN PERSPECTIVE, by Shelden and Eleanor Glueck. Cambridge, Massachusetts: Harvard University Press, 1968. Pp. xx, 268. Cloth: $8.50. Subject: A description and interpretation of the findings in a prior work, Unraveling Juvenile Delinquency, with new research collected in twelve years of subsequent investigation. The authors, emphasizing continuity in juvenile study, carefully follow a controlled group of delinquents and nondelinquents, relating the groups' personal and social backgrounds with their subsequent behavior.
- DEMOCRATIC PROCESS AND ADMINISTRATIVE LAW, by Robert S. Lorch. Detroit: Wayne State University Press, 1969. Pp. 268. Cloth: $8.50. Subject: A political scientist's examination of the increasing power of public administrators to make law and adjudicate cases, the shortcomings and dangers of the administrator's role in legislative and judicial areas and the legal means of controlling administrative power.
- 1969 FEDERAL ESTATE AND GIFT TAXES EXPLAINED, by CCH Editorial Staff. Chicago: Commerce Clearing House, Inc., 1969. Pp. 294. Paper: $5.00. Subject: Information on the preparation of estate and gift tax returns with special attention given to estate planning and instrument drafting. Includes explanations of Estate Tax Return (Form 706), rate tables and sample illustrations.
- FRANCHISING: TRAP FOR THE TRUSTING, by Harold Brown. Boston: Little, Brown and Company, 1969. Pp. viii, 180. Cloth: $15.00. Subject: An informative discussion for both the legal profession and the public of the imbalance that exists in the franchise relationship and suggested forms of redress by means of litigation and legislation. The foreword is written by Senator Philip A. Hart, Chairman, Subcommittee on Antitrust and Monopoly.
- 1969 GUIDEBOOK TO LABOR RELATIONS, by CCH Editorial Staff. Chicago: Commerce Clearing House, Inc., 1969. Pp. 376. Paper: $6.00. Subject: A quick reference explanation of the basic principles of current labor law with topical index. Areas considered are labor objectives and rights, collective bargaining, unfair labor practices and conciliation of labor disputes.
- INTERNATIONAL CUSTOM AND THE CONTINENTAL SHELF, by Zdenek J. Slouka. The Hague, Netherlands: Martinus Nijhoff, 1968. Pp. xii, 186. Paper: $7.00. Subject: A study in the origins and dynamics of international custom in the legal regime of the continental shelf. The author, a professor at Columbia University, first inquires into the original process of policy formulation and then suggests that bilaterally oriented studies between States would lead toward a more realistic assessment of the interplay of politics and law.

JOHN MARSHALL'S DEFENSE OF MCCULLOCH V. MARYLAND, edited by Gerald Gunther. Stanford, California: Stanford University Press, 1969. Pp. vi, 214. Cloth: $7.50. Subject: A compilation of the entire newspaper debate over McCulloch v. Maryland. The text includes nine essays now attributed to Marshall, that have been reprinted from the 1969 Stanford Law Review. The author offers his interpretation of the collection in a brief introduction.

JUSTICE LOUIS D. BRANDEIS: THE ZIONIST CHAPTER OF HIS LIFE, by Ezekiel Rabino-witz. New York: Philosophical Library, Inc., 1968. Pp. 130. Cloth: $4.50. Subject: A documentation of the author's research on three achievements of Justice Brandeis: the building up of the Zionist organization in the United States; the Balfour Declaration; and his contribution toward expanding the boundary of the proposed British Mandate northward at the time of the San Remo Conference. The author has been a voice in the Zionist Movement in the United States for some years.

NEW RULES ON CONSUMER CREDIT PROTECTION, by CCH Editorial Staff. Chicago: Commerce Clearing House, Inc., 1969. Pp. 439. Paper: $7.00. Subject: A review of the federal Truth-in-Lending Act and the proposed Uniform Consumer Credit Code, with explanations concerning the law and its effect on the consumer. The text includes topical paragraphs, a table of contents for laws and regulations and a topical index of the contents of the volume.

SELLING A CORPORATE ASSET . . . TAX SOLUTIONS, by CCH Editorial Staff. Chicago: Commerce Clearing House, Inc., 1969. Pp. 160. Paper: $3.00. Subject: An analysis of the problems involved in the disposal of a corporate asset, including a selected reading list, case tables and finding lists to rulings, Code sections and Regulations.

SORRY . . . NO GOVERNMENT TODAY: UNIONS VS CITY HALL, edited by Robert E. Walsh. Boston: Beacon Press, 1969. Pp. vii, 325. Cloth: $5.95. Subject: An anthology of the work of many persons involved in the collective bargaining field of public employment. The essays question the function and relationship of the government and its public employees to the private labor movement. Offering no simple solutions, the authors present the urgency of the many-faceted problems confronting the city and state.

THE TAX EXEMPT ORGANIZATION: A PRACTICAL GUIDE, by CCH Editorial Staff. Chicago: Commerce Clearing House, Inc., 1969. Pp. 372. Paper: $6.00. Subject: Information on qualification for and maintenance of tax exempt status including commentary on the I.R.S. Handbook and Exemption Application (Form 1023), lists of rulings, a topical index and a bibliography.

TRAFFIC AND THE POLICE: VARIATIONS IN LAW-ENFORCEMENT POLICY, by John A. Gardiner. Cambridge, Massachusetts: Harvard University Press, 1969. Pp. viii, 176. Cloth: $6.00. Subject: A study of variations in levels of traffic law enforcement based on statistics from nearly seven hundred police departments, census data, personal interviews and detailed case studies of four Massachusetts cities. The author identifies and discusses the factors that determine police decision-making in relation to traffic violations.

1969 U.S. EXCISE TAX GUIDE, by CCH Editorial Staff. Chicago: Commerce Clearing House, Inc., 1969. Pp. 462. Paper: $5.00. Subject: An aid to working with and an explanation of federal excise taxes. It includes tax form lists, rate tables, cross-references to Code sections and checklists of taxed and nontaxed items.

VENTURING TO DO JUSTICE: REFORMING PRIVATE LAW, by Robert E. Keeton. Cambridge, Massachusetts: Harvard University Press, 1969. Pp. vi, 183. Cloth: $6.95. Subject: An examination of civil law reform concentrating in the areas of product liability and automobile accidents. The author focuses on changes, both institutional and substantive, needed to offer a more viable and unified system of private law.

WOMEN AND THE LAW: THE UNFINISHED REVOLUTION, by Leo Kanowitz. Albuquerque, New Mexico: University of New Mexico Press, 1969. Pp. ix, 312. Cloth: $8.95. Subject: A discussion of every major aspect of the legal status of the American woman. The author presents an analysis of sex-based legal inequities raising constitutional questions of "due process" and "equal protection." Particular attention is given to the meaning and possible effect of the 1964 Civil Rights Act and the 1963 Equal Pay Act on equal employment opportunities.

TEXTBOOK
